THE COPPER CORNER

MAY, JUNE, JULY 2012 "Something for Everyone"

LIST #68

HELLO, TO ALL--- Well, the count is in, apparently---and the slate running unopposed has won the various elective offices within the CTCC. No surprise, of course. It seems I am President. But, this means that we can get started with some projects we have in mind, and also that the next Journal will include a request to ALL members of the CTCC for input on those programs. This is a democracy, and input will be recognized and discussed, and you shall know the results. One of the things being discussed now is a new web site, with up to date information, and possibly the archiving of the CTCC Journal where we have permission to do so, as well as making an interactive forum for club members. So, you can get back to me on those points, at least. Or, you may also contact Jon Lusk, the new Vice President, Alan Judd, the VP for the rest of the world, Scott Loos, the Treasurer as well as myself. The next Journal will have a complete listing of the names and addresses of all officers, and a listing of the board members. The club officers will invite participation from everyone, and take the lead in asking for help. We wish a growing club, not a stagnant one. If you are not a member, consider joining, $25 a year, or £20 per year in the UK.

New management goal: A club active and interesting to all. Which to me, means we are ALL active in it!! And thanks for the notes as to your vote, it makes the job worth the having. Please read the information in the CTCC Journal when out in May.

This listing, getting back to work, is a bit different than some. I have noted that I keep skipping over groups that deserve to be listed, just because there are so many other things that I want to list. So, bear with me, there shall be some nice things as always, but also some really hard to find pieces that are not so much money. These are generally scarce to rare items that absolutely--well, almost---NEVER show up in UNC, and many never in high grade, period. But, if it was worthy of my keeping to list, it is a good one for the D&H number and type. So, have a look, part of the listings might surprise.

TO ACCESS THE ARCHITECTURE LISTING, OR THE BARGAIN BIN PAGES, PLEASE GO TO MY WEB SITE. NEED A HARD COPY OF IT? PLEASE ASK AND I WILL SEND ONE TO YOU.

A British EF is an American AU. AU on this list can be AU, slight rub, to MS 62.

EVASION TOKENS as in Atkins, Cobwright, prices in the Token book for the most part---

Most of these tokens were made in the late 18th C, many in the last few years of the century, some made later and a few earlier, but the date on the piece is to be taken with a grain of salt. Many who could not read accepted these pieces, which were made in worn condition-- to make it look like they had been in circulation for a good length of time. Avery interesting series, and one that often confuses the new collector.
