“Something for Everyone”

18th Century “CONDER TOKENS”-----17th Century, 19th Century, hobby Books,

Medals, medalets, unusual historical items

LIST #96

Hello to all-----

Summer seems to be arriving, though in some places it is taking its time. Soon, though, we ought to have decent weather nearly everywhere in the USA.

I am still battling, and apparently shall continue to battle, my illness which is not curable. I have, until I feel better (hope, hope) abandoned my trips to the UK---just too much for me as it stands. But, will keep on keeping on!!

This list contains a lot of really rare and nice things, I shall hope you enjoy it. There will, from now on, be a few reruns of items that easily could have sold on the last few lists but did not, nice things that are not easy to find. Along with that, new items, of course.

Auctions-----I hear nothing these days from Baldwin's of St. James, but understand they are to have a token auction in June, and another in the fall. They are basically continuing to sell items gleaned from Baldwin's basement, at least token wise, and I understand they have the tokens on consignment from Baldwins. Baldwin's itself marches on, they have some tokens for sale, and a web site with a short list of them, but they are primarily (I understand) buying and selling coins and attending fairs all over the UK, and they shall have a presence at the York Coin Fair this summer, and many others as well.

DNW----they just had a really nice but small auction, but very few 18th C tokens were in it, highlights were a pair of Essex, Epping shillings, rather rare things, a Woodford farthing that looked new, a pair of Mendoza halfpence with the boxing theme that brought good money, and a Worcestershire, Leigh farthing (found to be from Worcs, it is in D&H as from Essex, as #42), that is mentionable as it was at least 50% red, and very nice. Other than those there were groups of middle grade tokens from various locations and a short run of 19th Century tokens.

I understand that DNW is planning a sale for October that will be a special one. I do not have the dates in hand now, but if Peter Preston Morley says it is to be a rather special token sale, I believe him. For information it is DNW.co.uk for the web site.

After over 4 months without my e-mail program, it is finally fixed and working. It is nice to be able to save an e-mail in a separate place, not just in a long line.

Have a wonderful summer, and though I am not travelling, will be doing so in spirit.

The list is below, please enjoy looking Bill

18th century provincial "Conder" tokens. PAGE TWO-----

BEDFORDSHIRE 3c 1794 Leighton Buzzard. Tad weak, but a nice AU+ $110
PUDDINGTON 5--- REMOVED TO DEVONSHIRE, SEE BELOW.

BERKSHIRE

WINDSOR 1a 1795 Lists Scarce, today probably RR, and this example says it is special just by a glance. The reverse die gave way on these, the flaws on the reverse carry over to the obverse, and the piece is known for a lot of problems. However, as rare as these are, they are avidly sought anyway.

This piece fully UNC, bronzed, without the usual die buckle and cuds, except for a slight buckle line in the tree on the obverse, the obverse is superb. The reverse has buckling that does not affect the design and all words can be easily read. Obverse: Running Stag behind tree. Reverse, Crown above, "Windsor Halfpenny Token 1795" Where the buckling exists, in the center of the reverse, the strike is weak on the lettering. Finding one this nice with a nearly perfect obverse is rare indeed. A comparable piece was sold 26 years ago at $450. This piece easily UNC, and really hard to improve. $1050.

CHESHIRE

MACCLESFIELD 3 1790 Penny, Chas, Roe//woman, mining tools. RARE---A piece by Westwood. These large pieces are in line for more problems than are halfpennies, but this one has escaped that, beautiful surfaces, full luster, Bronzed UNC. Gemmy----$850

DEVONSHIRE

PUDDINGTON 13 See Bedford 5) Bust W. Waller//Ship. Nice clean surfaces, no major marks, but with the usual lack of detail in Waller's Hair. Most of these are weak, as made, with especially obverse detail being the weak location. A RR piece at best, and a major Devon token, this grades EF with the known weakness, looks GF or better. $895.

W. UPCOTT Davis 21. This is a twopence, dated 1801. It was unknown to D&H and not included in that catalog. It was included in Davis's 19th C volume. There were 36 originals struck, and with cleaned up dies, another 36 later, but using the same dies. This is one of the "restrikes". When cleaning up the dies, a small ship on the obverse winds up slightly off the water, otherwise it is amazingly nice, just one tiny mark in the field, the reverse also very nice, no marks, but there is a fold cud at the rim in a couple places, and tooling is evident on the Spurn lighthouse. The token has an amazing look, the Eddystone Lighthouse is on the obverse, the Spurn lighthouse on the reverse, the condition of both sides beautiful. It is bronzed. The originals and restrikes usually cost about the same, both are quite rare, I have a tendency to price the originals a bit higher if the grade is even, these have sold for up to $1500, but I have this one and can sell it for $950----hard to upgrade this.

ESSEX

DUNMOW 11b 1795. Arms//Flitch of bacon. Luster, superb UNC $275.

HORNCHURCH 33 ND Bust Edward IV//Arms. These are fairly common, but not like this, 100% red on both sides and all original. A GEM and really pretty, $295.

WOODFORD 39 1796 RARE---Wheatsheaf, sickle, doves//Wheel and compass, etc, A super strong strike on a good weight flan, lots of luster, traces original red, $795.

GLOUCESTERSHIREPAGE THREE

GLOUCESTER	7	1797	Penny. St. John's Church//Arms. Huge luster, Ch UNC $175.
GLOUCESTER	8	1797	Penny. White Friars'..Arms. Brown, nice luster UNC $165
GLOUCESTER	9	1797	Penny. The High Cross//Arms. Very ch. Bronzed UNC $195.
GLOUCESTER	10	1797	Penny. New County Gaol// Arms. Brown luster UNC $150.
GLOUCESTER	11	1797	Penny, St. Bartholemew's Hospital. Nice, ch UNC $165.
BADMINTON	29	1796	(REMAINDER OF Gloucester are halfpennies)/ Bust George III/ Scales, 3 ½ LBS. Bronzed, AU++ $125.
BADMINTON	32	1796	A Ship//Duke of Beaufort, &c. AU for slight rough area, $77.
BADMINTON	33	1796	A Ship//A Plough. Very choice bronzed UNC $165.
NEWENT	64	1796.	An Apple Tree//Legend in a spiral. Superb original luster, and fully UNC, lots of these come close will admit, but this one is spot on UNC and choice. $195.

HAMPSHIRE

PORTSMOUTH	8	1798	Bust, Admiral Nelson//"in memory of action off the Nile"---It is not known how many of these pennies were struck, assume 15 possible, right now it is RR-RRR and deserves that listing. Very slight weakness in strike on Nelson's cheek, and a tiny scratch in front of his mouth. Other than that, the entire piece fault free, with nice original luster. A really superb example of a very rare token, ---in 25 years I have only handled three, this and one other recently, the first 20 years ago. This is the best of those---UNC, $1200.
PORTSMOUTH	65	1797	Neptune, chariot//Bust Jervis, &c. Tad rub, a nice AU $125.
PORTSEA	80	1796	St. George, Dragon//Ship. Spines on dragon, GVF, $55
S'HAMPTON	84	1790	Sir Bevois//Arms. A trial in attempt to gain a contract to strike #89, eventually won by Boulton. This RR , and a choice bronzed UNC. $325
S'HAMPTON	86	1790	Sir Bevois//Arms. A rarer trial by Jacobs, with a quite different idea of the bust, both this and the last have a Taylor, Moody edge. RR , Ch. Bronzed UNC $425.
NAVAL TOKEN	101	1794	Earl Howe//Ship. Usual softness but UNC $85
NAVAL TOKE N	102	1794	Earl Howe//Ship. Milled edge, some red, fully UNC $135.

HERTFORDSHIRE

STORTFORD	4	1795	Arms of Stortford//River, barges, ---this was Boulton's favorite token, this one a few contact marks, so AU, bronzed, luster $145. A near GEM unc $250.
-----------	---	------	---

KENT

APPLEDORE	3	1794	Windmill//Lion, Lamb. NO marks, nice GVF $55.
BROOKLAND	5	1794	Kentish Horse in oval//Hanging fleece, cypher. The die crack that affects the date on many, just starting here, all struck up, nice AU $115.
CANTERBURY	6	1794	View of Cathedral//Arms. Perfect surfaces, UNC $125.
DEPTFORD	13	1795	Kentish men meet Wm III/Royal George. AU+ $95.
HAWKHURST	20	1794	Wheat Sheaf, cypher/Horse in a shield. Choice super UNC $185

LAMBERHURST	35	1794	Arms of Chichester//Arms of Canterbury. AU+ $55.
MAIDSTONE	37	1795	Arms of Maidstone//Padsole Mill. faded red UNC, flan chip $110
STAPLEHURST	40	1794	TS cypher, Arms (Stag's head)//Kentish Horse. A token that is very hard to find as a sharp UNC, nearly all are lesser graded, this sharp, Bronzed, UNC $155.

LANCASTER	41	1794	John of Gaunt//Arms. Some luster, UNC just $75
LANCASTER	50	(1791)	John of Gaunt//Arms of Liverpool. RR AU for issue $145.
LIVERPOOL	95	1792	Ship//Arms of Liverpool. EF+ $65.
LIVERPOOL	120	nd	Ship//Bust of Earl Howe. AU, sharp $65.
MANCHESTER	135e	1793	Porter carrying pack//Arms. Red in all devices, nice UNC $125.
ROCHDALE	143	1792	Man in Loom//Arms. R&B, Obverse choice, net EF $65.

MIDDLESEX PENNY TOKENS-----

KEMPSON'S	51	ND	Christ's Church Hospital//Arms of London. Tad red, ch UNC $185
KEMPSON'S	61	ND	Middlesex Hospital//Arms of London. Brown, but with a good deal of red in the devices, nice UNC $195.
KEMPSON'S	71	1797	Justice Standing//Blackfriar's Bridge. R&B, nice surfaces, UNC with very nice surfaces, the red is in the devices. $395
KEMPSON'S	73	1797	Aldgate//Justice Standing. R&B, pretty $295
KEMPSON'S	78	1797	Ludgate//Justice Standing. Lots of fading red and nice surfaces, really a choice UNC $295.
LONDON & WESTMINSTER---	84.	1797	Trinity House//City Arms. RARE . This piece is virtually as struck, very sharp UNC $450.
LONDON & WESTMINSTER---	93.	ND	Horse and Foot Guards//City Arms. VERY RARE . This token, if held looking at the reverse, is perfect in every way Luster, full strike----but if looking at the obverse, we see a token that had a disastrous die failure. Clear in the very center, it bevels down to the lettering virtually all the way around, and yet, nearly all of the building is visible, even through the buckling, the words Horse and Foot guards readable, even though it has die cracks and cuds in those letters, at the bottom of the obverse, the word Whitehall is sharp and complete, none of the buckling and cracks reaching it. I have seen a few of these, most do not have the look and charm of this token, and when first viewing it was going to keep it, but decided that I should probably pass it on to someone younger, So, here it is, really a charming piece and there cannot be many of them with the large number of problems seen, ----it even has plenty of obverse luster in the center----and what a better one would look like depends on the -person looking----Super, UNC $950.
LONDON & WEST.	100	1797	Fishmonger's Hall//City Arms. RARE , 1 scr, Bzd UNC $295
SKIDMORE	161	ND	Smallpox Hospital, St. Pancras//Arms. Scarce to RARE , this is a choice example, UNC, $475.
MISCELLANEOUS	169	1797	Banqueting House//Portcullis, Scales. Quite RARE , this with a bit of red color, and a very sharp strike, nice buy $475.
NATIONAL	180	1789	Bust George III//Urn, Snake---this is a super copper example with great luster and surfaces, just a tad of rub so nets AU. These were made (note the date) to celebrate the King's "return to health from madness". Soho Mint, just $175.
NATIONAL	221	1789	Bust Charles James Fox//Free and independent elector from Westminster---This piece in White metal, with lots of original flash, the devices have toned but not the fields, and the piece is quite RARE . UNC, yours, for $375.

MIDDLESEX TOKENS PAGE FIVE (A THREEPENCE)----

GOODMAN'S FIELDS 3 1760 A chained bear---"Goodman's Fields Brewhouse"//Thomas Jordan & Co, Threepence. One of the true rarities of this series, with the statement do not wait for an UNC example, being very true. This is the only one of these I have been able to acquire, and for grade—for wear, GF, for look, VF++, no major marks or damage, just wear, much of the lettering being GVF, the reverse fully readable though a bit weak, in this case from wear. It is brass, the token made with a hole at the top and the chain for the bear is threaded through the hole. On first glance I thought the piece to have choice surfaces, and that it had probably been a pocket piece for a while. Overall a very nice looking example, and RRR easily. Probably a long wait until the next one -----Yours for $975.

BOOKS----

As you might suspect, I will start off with the 2015-2016 printing of Dalton & Hamer's "Provisional token coinage of the 18th Century", also known as Conder Tokens. Yes, there are still some left, I ordered the printing to leave me enough to last a while.

The book is hardbound, with token photos on the cover, over 20 pages of information on how to use the book, a map, a listing that leads you to the token in your hand without much of a search, and a 47 page addenda with new finds gleaned over the last few years by Davidson, Whitmore, and yours truly. This new edition is, with post, $135. To buy it, send that amount to Bill McKivor, PO Box 46135, Seattle, WA 98146. Note: I no longer take Pay Pal.

I really must get a bibliography of the books needed to collect, and a note as to why they are needed. A good reference brings much knowledge as well as enjoyment, and there are quite a few books that would look good on your shelf, if you would take them down and use them. I will work on that in the coming weeks, and offer it to you now, just send me an e-mail with your address (I lost many of them with the computer crash), and I will just send it to you when it is done. Your E-mail to copperman@thecoppercorner.com will do it.

I have room for one more book, but will tell you that I love it, and would keep it and study it if I lived in New England-----as I do not, I will offer it to someone who does live there and likes to wander about the land---the book is entitled "The Turnpikes of New England"---450 pages of information about all NE states and their turnpikes, most of them toll roads, as the year is 1917. The car is just becoming something that people bought occasionally, ----a few years earlier the roads were not for cars at all, and the car itself was not very reliable. By 1917 there were some good ones on the road.. This huge book is full of photos, lots of information, maps, and just hours of good reading. Written and edited by Frederick J Wood, and covers all states in that corner of the USA, book not printed until 1919. Original, used, but decent, $50 W/post.

Thomas Fisher, Twopence---1735. Bird with a worm, //Promise to pay two pence---These a bit erratically struck, this one has the bird with the worm, some do not have the latter, and the center of the reverse has a metal fault as usual. For this issue, a nice VF. Ex. Dr. Richard Doty, who paid $265, a decent price for 2019, for sure, so that is it, $265. A nice example of an early 18th Century token.

Medal, the Worshipful Company of Haberdashers---copper, 38mm—With the arms of the company on the obverse, the reverse an award medal for July 1, 1892, named to J. M. McPherson, for excellence in mathematics. A student at Aske's Hatcham's School. AU $45.

Deanston, Scotland. The Adelphi Cotton works, (woolpack) counterstamp on a counterfeit George III halfpence. This was Lot 325 at the sale of Norman Brodie, and is also ex Dennis Vorley. I paid well more than my asking price now, as a few more examples have surfaced, thus this nice GVF piece available for $295.

England---The first flight of the British Comet from London to Melbourne, Australia—October 19-22 1934. Aluminum, 38mm. Quite RARE, made in 1935, the obverse with a view of the plane, the reverse with the legend, "exhibited at Lewis's 1935" In 1934 it was quite a distance for any plane to travel. Small piece of history, EF easily and bright, $95.

Boyd's Battery---a Quack medical device, if you wore it the cure for everything from cancer to hangnails was yours. A 31mm round device, with little pieces of round metal of different types in the center, this item was made in both the US and in England. This one made in London, and dated 1876. It is as made, and it says something about the belief system in 1876. Price $135.

Germany---a "Shame Thaler" by Laur. 38mm SILVER, it shows a French Soldier abusing a nude German woman///reverse, a broken sword. (1923). This was what was supposedly done during the 1st World War, another test on the belief system---EF+, rare in silver, $110.

WWII---The cruiser Admiral Hipper---Germany, 3 silver plated brass AU+ Kanteen Tokens, for 5, 20, and 100 marks. 16, 20, & 29mm. Rather rare, especially the 5 mark piece, they are offered individually and as a set---5 marks, $125. 20 marks $135, 100 marks, $155. All $350.

Canada-----Halifax Ferry Token---19mm, R&B and as new. Ship obverse. Luster AU++, $45.

Canada—1850's Bank piece, this a penny token blank, with the obverse and reverse of the halfpenny struck, with NO legends. Had to be done on purpose. Each side with a large area of flan not used, perfectly centered on both sides. St George, Dragon obv., rev. with the crown, scepter and anchor but no legends or ribbons for it. No tooling or playing around with it showing at all, my take is that it was made this way. Pocket piece, I think, F-VF $275.

USA Fort McKinley (in the Philippines)---this counterstamped, with the denomination "10" in the center of a 1906 Hong Kong penny. Host Good at best, counterstamp GVF. Fort McKinley has known struck tokens for it, this preceded those by some years, and is very rare. $250.

Alaska token, Seward. Obverse of this halfpenny size token, A view of Seward, Alaska, legend "Native Copper". Reverse, Northern—GF 12 ½ C in trade. Round, GVF and nice $65.

1853---View of the New York Crystal Palace. Reverse a man in a buggy being pulled by dogs---legend H. B. West's famous trained dogs—Trey and Troy. 28mm brass, EF-AU $85.

Indian Territory (Oklahoma), This token from (1870-95), a token in brass, 21mm---obverse, Eagle, drum, flags//rev, Dunlap and Florer, Osage Indian Traders. $1.00. RARE, now $170.

Feuchtwanger's Composition, an 1837 penny---an Eagle and snake on the obverse, the reverse with the value of one cent. This one GF-AVF, nice shape, and yours for $225.

Colorado Dollar, 1933, type IV. In 1933, the state of Colorado exhibited at the worlds fair in Chicago, and made some dollar size silver to promote the state and sell souvenirs at the fair. All of the types, 1-3---were made with incuse lettering, but the type 4, this one, was struck. It has a mill and mining scene on the obverse, legend "Use Silver to Restore Prosperity", Century of Progress world's fair, 1933. Quite appropriate as the USA was by this year deep into the depression. The reverse with symbols of mountains, mines, all seeing eye, and "One Ounce Pure Silver, Colorado. Very handsome piece, with nice scenes. UNC, pretty, $455.

Battle of Jutland, May 31, 1916. A 45mm WM medal, struck in the memory of those who fell that day. The obverse with flags, and a trident. Reverse, a wreath, "The German Fleet Attacked" &c, and under Admiral Sir John Jellicoe, &c---All bright, AU piece $95.

Battles of Helgoland and Doggersbank--- The obverse of this 45mm WM medal, A toned EF+, is pictured the sinking of the Mainz, 1914, and the Blucher, 1915. These 2 battles commanded by Vice Admiral Beatty. Listed are the 35 or so ships in the battle, and a list of the German ships destroyed. Fairly rare these days, this medal toned AEF, price $125.

A Box Coin---George III twopence, 1797. This cut down to penny size, and the coin cut in half lengthwise, with a band of white medal around. Excellent workmanship. The side of the band opens to leave a place in which to place whatever you wish. Coin GF, rest EF, $265.

US NAVY---As a Navy man or woman can tell you, when they are in a ship and cross the equator they are automatically in the "Shellback Club". There is a coin, made for use in the early part of the 20th Century and I think, up to 1950 or so. Major ships had a coin made just for them, with the name of the ship, and a place for the name of the recipient, making them a member of the club and "initiated into the mysteries of the realm of the Raging Main". Smaller ships did not have a coin with the name of the ship, but a generic one that still had their initiation and their name. This piece is one of those, 29mm, copper, with much original red color, a Warship on the obverse, Neptune in the sea with his trident---the Reverse with a place for the name of the recipient and information about the "Club". These are rarely found, I have owned several from various ships that I bought in one collection years ago, this is the only one I have owned that is generic. Thus, much cheaper than the others. UNC, nice $75.

NEW ZEALAND pennies. First one around 1850---Obv, a Maori warrior, Kiwi, palm tree, Reverse, "Milner and Thompson' Music store---VF+ $75. Second penny, 1874, mining scene, mill, headframe---reverse, issued by George McCall, Grahamstown. GF-VF, nice $75.

Famous men of France---Montyon and Benjamin Franklin---the two busts on one medal, which is a 41mm bronze piece by Barre, manufactured in 1833, the medal essentially as new. This medal part of a series of famous men of France, (Franklin is so considered!!), for their ingenuity, invention, and usefulness to society. Very strong portraits, no wear, $135.

France---50th Anniversary (1837-1887) of the French railway system. An award medal, it is named on the reverse to "Le Voltair", with the obverse with a super high relief of a train engine of the era, under way. A really super view of the train engine, with no other items to distract, one of the best medals of type I have seen. Copper, full color no marks, UNC $155.
