THE COPPER CORNER

AUGUST, SEPTEMBER, OCTOBER 2016 "Something for Everyone"
18th Century "CONDER" TOKENS-----17TH Century tokens—19th Century tokens
Evasions, Unofficial Farthings, Medals, medalets, unusual historical items----
LIST # 85

Welcome to List #85. I shall hope it goes well, since list 84 was cancelled by Microsoft, who froze my computer to a point where I had to put it in the shop to be repaired, and it was there for three days when I was supposedly having my quarterly sale. It is amazing how we depend on computers, I can remember when there was no such thing, and we survived just fine. And, to look around a neighborhood for a pay telephone, thing of the past. Well, anyway, here we are, some nice material, hope you enjoy the list.

The BREXIT vote in the UK came as a surprise to me, and many others. It does not, for the moment, change anything other than new material will cost less, though some items could be more to make up for the loss on the UK side of things. American money will go farther, the English pound not as far. My biggest worry is not for me or for most readers, but merchants in the UK will certainly feel it if the trade agreements are abolished. All we can do is wait and see what happens.

Coming up for Fall, This fall will look a lot like the last one, with the Baldwin Basement III sale, a continuation of the first two, being held on Tuesday, October 4th. I understand that it will be a lot like the last, with mostly individual lots, but will have to wait to see the catalogue to be sure. I cannot imagine that it will quite continue with the condition and rarity seen in the first two sales, but possibly so---- Will repeat the warning, and that is that the Baldwin sale material comes directly from the basement, where it has been for 50-100 years, and it is up to the buyer to work out just what condition it is in. You should have eyes on them, yours or someone else-- if you are to put in a correct bid on something you want.

The DNW token auction originally slated for October will be held in September, instead---- understand from Peter Preston Morley that it will contain some group lots, and many pieces from various properties. These are on line now, and you can have a look.

We have not had a sale of a large private collection in a few years, and have been through this before, it seems we either have a wealth of material coming our way, or a paucity of the same, where we are wondering where to find good things we want.

And, of course, if you need a new D&H, do not forget that they are available now, the price $125 plus $10 for shipping, See page EIGHT for ordering and shipping information.

The sale before you contains some very interesting and often sought tokens, a nice Puddington is up first, and later in the sale is D&H Plate Token for the Middlesex 209, with Thomas Paine hanging, and after that a Warks 11, the Loggerheads token that follows the Greatheads pieces, and there actually will be one of those as well!! There ought to be something here for everyone, and it is hoped you like the list. Thanks for Looking, Bill

18th CENTURY TOKENS AS CATALOGUED BY DALTON AND HAMER

BEDFORDSHIRE & DEVONSHIRE, SEE BELOW

PUDDINGTON Bedfordshire 5, or Devonshire 13. 1797.

Bust W. Waller//Ship. This token designated by D&H as being from Bedfordshire, but our own Michael Dickinson found that Waller was from Puddington, Devonshire. Now Devonshire 13.

On this token Waller is noted as having no, or very little, hair detail. The flan has a few small flaws in it that appear natural, the lettering around is nearly new, so the piece is probably far closer to UNC than to VF, I am calling it EF+. Handled, though, a few minor marks, but the flan is remarkably clear. The reverse, with the ship, is weak in the very center, but not too much. It is AU at least. These tokens were once thought to be rarer than we think today, but still it is RR. Might be 15 known now. Michael Dickinson says he has traced 14 examples, The present offering is a decent example of a very hard to find piece, at least RR, which has finally settled into Devonshire. $1050.

These tokens showed up in the 1990's, one or two were known, but in the 90's there was a small explosion of them, and there is a possibility that someone found a group of them at that time.

Michael Dickinson's excellent article on this token is to be found in CTCC Journal #50.

This White Metal token is RR at least, very popular and very hard to locate. This example not as sharply struck as some, but there is some original luster, as well as two cuds, one at around 2 O'clock on the obverse, the other at around 5:30, which look a bit like edge bumps looking at the piece straight on, but they are not. There is NO tin pest, and no heavy marks but some handling and marks are seen, most of them very light. In this alone it is a very nice example, graded EF. YOU MAY SEE THIS PIECE, AS IT IS THE D&H PLATE TOKEN, and the owner of the token was S. H. Hamer. $3200.

GREATHEADS	7	1797	Three men in a cart under gallows, three nooses, // "As if from Temple Bar some head was cut" &c, ----White metal, this with nice luster, both sides, and just a tad of tin pest at the rim at 7:00 on the obverse. This with a very strong strike, all details superb, the reverse with strong readable legends, not blurry as sometimes seen. UNC, and quite RARE like this, for this piece an outstanding example, and nearly impossible to upgrade. $1495.
LOGGERHEADS	11	ND	Three men hanging from a gallows, a cart under them. The legend around, "The End of Three Logger Heads". The reverse, all legend, is "As if from Newgate's Cells three felons led, and on the new (day) dropp'd til DEAD, DEAD, DEAD". The Warks 11 is a token that has not been seen at auction in a few years, the one in the Bennett sale, DNW, brought in $5000, but that is more than any other had made. This piece with the long die crack from the second E in THREE down through the small devil, to just behind the ears of the donkey below, is common to the piece. Most are found with this die crack. The obverse has some original luster and is extremely nice, its grade would be UNC with no problem on my part assigning it. The reverse would be the same story, sharp lettering, some red in the devices, but there are a pair of carbon spots, the most notable in LS of CELLS, and spreading below it touching the L of LED. The second one is on the R of FROM. Again, original luster, some red, but the carbon spots do detract. This piece would easily be over $4000, but is priced at $3500. The piece is copper, and very RARE . On consignment.

OTHER BOOKS and information---

RUDING, ROGERS, REV. 1817. British Coinage This four volume set, here complete and in VG condition, a bit dusty and a bit musty, though there are no water stains found, is a fine history of the mints and minting throughout the years from the beginning of minting in England--- and follows what was done at the mint up to 1817. Volume 4 speaks to what was made, with line drawings of each piece and discussion. Very complete history, large heavy volumes, each over 500 pp, not found often. Handsome, if dusty, bindings, minor damage to bottom of spines. $88 includes US Post. Essentially a give away----if you can use it, it is here.

Sweeny, James O---A Numismatic History of the Birmingham Mint. Engaged in minting in one way or another for many years, the Birmingham Mint really took hold with the purchase of the Soho Mint presses and various other minting tools at the 1850 auction held by the Boulton heirs. 1981, 245pp, as new, $35.

18th Century tokens, the Noble Sale, July 1998. Huge sale, with PRL, a classic. $95

SET----The Noble Catalogues, Conder Tokens, 1998, British Tickets and Passes, 1999, and Communion Tokens, 2000. These three sales were of all of the tokens and other material collected by Jim Noble. They all have a PRL, and are still the largest sale of this sort of material anywhere. The set, as new, $160. Bargain. A second set of these, a veritable feast of each type of tokens, and fascinating reading. Used, all three $120.

These tokens were struck out of necessity for change. They are quite crude, and I generally try to find them in at least Fine. They are a fun series, and the most popular tokens to collect in the UK. All are farthings unless otherwise noted.

EVASION TOKENS

Put out at various times, but most often it seems 1795-1805, halfpennies and farthings worn down before they were issued---& meant to deceive, those who could not read accepted them. Often they have nonsense legends.

Admiral Vernon Medal---1739, took Porto Bello with six ships only---Vernon, with baton, cannon, ship &c, //the 6 ships in harbor. This piece has some flan striations on the obverse, and the reverse has some strike weakness on the high points. It is essentially AU at least, Vernon himself very strong and about as made, but for price it has to be net AEF. Hard to find these in a nice grade, this one looks sharp. $350.

Sentimental Magazine, Duke of Gloucester, 1773. VF+, possible old cleaning, retoning, $35.

Battle of Culloden---1746, AE 34mm. Duke of Cumberland//Battle scene. GVF-EF, a nice one $125.

Britain's Hope box medal, made circa 1850 a gilt brass box, the round box 27mm across by 8 mm deep, containing three white metal medals in excellent condition, Queen Victoria, Prince Albert, and three portraits of the eldest children, at the top of one is Albert, the Prince of Wales---who, you see, was "Britain's Hope". The box has the Royal Arms on the base, and the lid with "The Queen, Prince Albert, and Britain's Hope". The gilt box close to new, the medals inside with no problems and nice luster. Superb condition, $245.

Rolls Royce plant tool check #405, reverse with 32470. 36mm AE, in nice condition, $15.

The Prince of Wales, Prince Albert and the Princess Alexandra of Denmark 1863. WM 50mm marriage medal, in very nice condition. Holed for suspension, this one with decent luster and some toning, EF $45.

George III, his 50th Jubilee. AE, 48mm, Bust George III//pair of two headed eagles as supporters for a shield. This includes the legend "He completed it", Oct 25, 1810. Large medal, minor mks, easily AEF nice $145.

Apothecary weights, #1.2.3, 5, and 6---short #4. 5 pieces, $15.

Hans Christian Anderson---A large SILVER medal, 50mm, (85 grams) in very high relief. His bust on the obverse, the reverse with a sleeping child in bed, a boy with an umbrella standing near him, watching over him. From a story by the author, this is dated 1887/1975 as a memorial to him. Edge #1480. EF, super $125.

Witch on a broomstick---a 45mm medal, rings like silver, but a copper color, with the legend around the witch "We all have our hobbies". And a bucket of coins being dumped over the broom handle. The other side with the number 1301, a shot glass??, the letters ORSM, and below that a liquor jug. Perhaps this is a medal for a gentleman's club, or ? Anyway, it is engraved, incuse, both sides, some decent work but not professional. Might be a one of a kind. Anyway, I bought it because of the witch on the broomstick and the legend. Applies to a lot of hobbies, I would think. And a neat display piece. $125.

WW I---Belgium. THREE 31mm medals, the King and Queen of Belgium on the obverse, and the Soldier's Children's fund on the reverse. In Silver, Copper, and Aluminum, the latter with ribbon. All EF, nice $45 all.

"MARKET (A SHIELD) PORTER" Below, "#1389". 19th to 20th C, VF, $110. Neat.

Falkland Islands, 100th Anniversary of British rule. 1833-1933. BZ, 36mm. Bust George V//Arms of the Island, (a seal), Falkland Islands centennial. As new, in box of issue, and an unusual find. UNC, perfect $125.

Viscount Montgomery of Alamein---This Paris Mint medal, BZ 68mm, obverse high relief bust of Montgomery, wearing his jaunty cap, The reverse in French, Crown over arms, with "Gardez Bien", well guarded by Monty, the theme. Made in 1946, just after the war, to commemorate his leadership. As new, $195.

King Henry IV---Bz medal, 1604, 57mm--- Obverse, King Henry IV// Reverse, the King celebrating his marriage to Marie De Medici, the two of them holding hands and seated close. This has to be very hard to find, and is easily EF with no damage, superb condition for what is an original 400+ year old medal. $295.

Wells Fargo Banking and express---BZ, 77mm, in case of issue. Obverse, “Wells Fargo & Co”, with a high relief scene of horses galloping, pulling a stagecoach//the reverse commemorating 125 years, 1852-1977. There were 2200 of these struck, and none sold, but were given to specific customers as gifts. Wish I could do that, but it seems not---Mint new, in the original case, $195.

Wells Fargo Express, Western Division---45mm AE medal as an award for service “during times of pressure and hardship” –the reverse with an incuse map of Europe and England, “From over the Sea”. I can find no reference to this medal, might be a fantasy. But, might not, too. Yours for $65, it is GVF and nice.

The Presidio Army Fort- San Francisco Taken from the Spanish in 1846, this spot next to the Golden Gate Bridge was used as an army fort until 1994. The fort exchange issued tokens from the late 1890’s on, this one is for “5”, and being made of red fiber---, a material tried in around 1900 and earlier, it probably stems from that date. I can find no other record of a red fiber example. The obverse of the piece with an ornament, and “Presidio of San Francisco Exchange” around. It is in an NGC holder labeled MS 65, so it is in excellent condition. Use of the fibre was tried in other venues around the turn of the last century, there are red fiber medals known for Queen Victoria, for example. Anyway, this is a rare item from a military fort now a park. The last owner tried to trace this as well, and had put $1500 on it, but it is yours if wanted for $350. A very rare item
