THE COPPER CORNER LIST #66

November 2011 -January 2012                   “Something for Everyone”
18th Century “CONDER” TOKENS-----17TH Century tokens—19th Century tokens
Unofficial Farthings, Medals, medalets, unusual historical items----

Hi Friends,

Well, back from the auctions and round of friends, bought a lot of items that are being shipped. An interesting time-- Baldwin's brought out a few from their vast storage, DNW had 1000 lots of tokens, with a ton of duplication and most everything in nice condition. In fact, over all, the tokens in the DNW sale from beginning to end were of super quality. Not all perfection, but quite a few were, prices for them a bit high but for most, considering the vast number of pieces offered, were reasonable. Hardly anything sold for under £120 (US $240), with other costs this made a really nice but fairly common piece at least $250.

I saw the same pricing in trays at the shows, so the new reality is higher prices, but the old line can be held in spots. In many places what I have in the past charged for a token in dollars, was now being charged in pounds. This was noted by some UK dealers, but there were bargains to be had.

Now, the present listing. As I have everything I buy shipped home, this list by necessity is done before I leave for the UK. It contains the usual run of nice EF-AU-UNC material, a few more Spence than usual, and some really rare great pieces. As it is formed before leaving for the UK, all of this material was in stock before I left. My next listing will have some of the new material, but in the meantime, have saved some really interesting pieces for this one. Enjoy.

MEDALS, MISC, AND---FUN STUFF---PAGE TEN

Alcatraz Island---Post exchange, circa 1895-- BZ 24mm,GF unlisted 10c, VERY RARE, Abt F, $1150.

The next pieces on this page probably need a bit of explanation, as they cover The story of the steam engine. The medals were in a set of Industrial Wonders done by Thomason of Birmingham around 1820, and there are a few sets out there, and quite a few loose medals. These three are part of a set of these medals, and all three are exceptional. They are White Metal, 73mm, large pieces, each with no problems at all and wonderful luster. The first one covers the Savery steam engine, and the High Pressure steam engine, a view of the Savery engine and the history in 40 lines, --yes, 40 lines, on each side of the medal. The second one covers the Franklin steam engine and the Newcomen engine, with a diagram of the latter, again with 40 lines of history each side, and the final medal covers the Watt single acting steam engine, good depiction of it, and both sides carry the history of his version. In all, the three medals cover the history of the steam engine to 1800. These are difficult to find without tin pest, without toning, without problems, but here they are. I wish to sell as a group, three pieces, UNC $450.

Aston Hall---this was James Watt's home while in Birmingham, he had his shop there and conducted many of his experiments on the steam engine there. In retirement he moved to Wales, and eventually the building and grounds were sold to the public for a park. At that time, (1872) a medal was made to commemorate the event, AE 55mm, Bust of Prince Arthur/and view of Aston Hall. Nice Watt memento, EF $95.

Sunderland Bridge---(See Dalton and Hamer, Durham 2 and 3) great adjunct to these pieces, or own this on your own. A view of the bridge, reverse an explanation of the bridge lottery."Sold to the public at a very advantageous price", 1816. Slight line from planchet cutter error on the obverse, but the piece is essentially as made, fully bright, and no other problems. White metal, 45mm, luster, very nice indeed, $225.

I will be having a Sunderland 2 and 3 on my lists, or available now if you inquire-----

A Scottish Soldier. Wonderful depiction of a Scottish soldier in Highland dress, inscription on the reverse of the battles the regiment was in up to Waterloo, in 1815. #10 in the Mudie series of victories of the Napoleonic wars. BZ, 41mm. Very nice indeed, made about 1820, EF at least $165.

Napoleon's Armies--- Obverse of this bz 41mm medal with Napoleon on a throne talking to soldiers. The reverse has a circular pattern with numbers, and below the list of divisions, Cavallerie, Infanterie, etc. A most interesting piece and original to 1814, before his last and final defeats. EF, $135

Allan Wyon. This medal, AE 45mm, is of the last of the Wyon die sinkers, who died in 1907. The medal is rare, and last time out I had a number of orders for one, this one Gem, and as made. Bust Wyon L, reverse with a tablet in memory. The Wyon clan held forth as die sinkers at the mint for 100 years or so. $145.

William Pitt Sr---Bz medal, AE, by Pingo (unsigned), 41mm---Bust L/ "The man who having saved the parent pleaded with success for her children"----Pitt saved Britain from economic disaster a few years before, but in 1766 he pleaded with parliament to discontinue the unfair stamp tax then being imposed on the American colony. He succeeded, though ten years later a revolution began. At the time, he save the day again averting problems with America. This medal perfect, just a touch of rub in the hair, super example EF $375.

America---45mm Bz medal, 1888, for the Artillery Co of Massachusetts, 250 years. Obverse a Minute Man with rifle, reverse an Indian in a shield, much like the Indian on the Massachusetts coinage of 1787. EF $240.

American Exhibition---rare 32mm WM medalet---shield of the USA,/Victoria, 50th Year. 1887. Dual item, a British exhibition medal for the American delegation, and a Jubilee medal as well. It is rare, GVF just$48. Liberation of Guernsey---brass, 35mm, 1945, liberation from German occupation in WWII. EF, nice $48.

George III---For bringing stability in religion,1774. By Kirk, this 41mm AE medal is really as struck, no wear evident, but on a rather pebbly flan as seen in field areas. Not often seen, but not horribly rare. EF, $135

Eden Theatre---AE, Gilt (wonderful), with hanger, 40mm. Obv St George, Dragon/Rev names of plays appearing at the theatre, 1902, 1903. at the Eden in Brighton. Super AU, $175.

Battleship HMS Dominion---AE, 38mm, the Launch medal. Obverse with a view of the new battleship, the reverse giving details of the ship, launched by Princess Louise, 1903. Medal is about as new, RARE $185.

Chamberlain, Munich Accord, 1938. "peace in our time"---Appeasement of Hitler--BR, 35mm, EF $78.

The Battle of Hastings---BZ, 58mm medal by Pinches, London, for the 900th anniversary of the battle---1066-1966. View of the battle obv/Arms, Viking ship rev, really nice piece, well accomplished. $78.

Naval Tokens-----Ships of the US Navy did not have a "canteen", or Ships Store, until the early 20th century. When established, so the sailors would have a place to buy razor blades and beer, they were called Canteens. Later, they were noted as "Ships Services", and many do not even know that these floating stores issued tokens, but they did. Below, a small selection of tokens from some of America's fighting ships, put together by one collector over a 40 year period. Always rare, and even rarer today. Ever see one?

If interested, I have a fairly large number of these, all one of a kind in stock, from his collection.

Battleship USS Alabama---1942-1947. Canteen token, AL 21mm, // "5". WWII, used in both Pacific and Atlantic theatres of war as support for aircraft carriers. Involved in the liberation of a number of Pacific islands including the Philippines. Now a museum ship in Mobile Alabama. EF, with history note, $275.

USS Argonne. AL, 19mm 10c. Ships Services. Served 1921-1950, was present in Pearl Harbor during the attack by the Japanese in December 1941. A sub tender during WWII. $135. With history note.

USS Ban-Dee. GF 25c In Trade. The collector bought this thinking it was a ship, but it is not--it is a restaurant in Ravenswood, Indiana, An unlisted Indiana town when found-- Fun piece, and rare, $55.

USS Chicago. Elongated 1968 Lincoln cent, reverse with a vignette of the ship, which was a heavy cruiser, 1931-1943. Served in WWII, fought battles of Guadalcanal and Coral Sea. Sunk by Japanese in 1943. $35.

USS Indiana. AL 22mm, Canteen token, 5c. The Indiana was America's first battleship, heavy armor, and designed for coastal defense, not for use on the high seas. It was built in 1890, served until 1919. Took part in the blockade of Cuba. Became obsolete, sunk in bombing test 1920. With history note, RARE, $295.

The Indiana had the first canteen in the navy, 1896. It was the only ship with one until 1909.

USS Perry, Mine Sweeper. AL 23mm, Escorted the Arizona to Hawaii in 1940. Built 1922, and served in WWII and was sunk by an enemy mine in 1944. Ships Services token, GF 5c, about new $195. .

Wild wild west Indian Trader and post trader tokens--- hard to find if looking for them, but here are a few, and I have a few more as well. If interested, will include others on later lists.

Joe Kuhn, Indian Trader, St. Michael's, AZ. GF50c. AL, round, 29mm. VF, $75.
